MISSION STATEMENT

Our faith-family of Immaculate Conception and its rich history and traditions, invite all Catholics to help them grow and mature as faithful followers of Jesus Christ.

FROM THE PASTOR'S DESK

The church cries out this day, "Come, Holy Spirit, come! Veni, Sancte Spiritus! Ven, Dios Espiritu Santo!" In every language and dialect in the world, we beg that the Spirit of God may be poured out. We look to God's Spirit for refreshment, comfort, and peace.

The Pentecost mystery of many languages united by one Spirit didn't just happen in Jerusalem so many centuries ago. One of the great beauties of the church is that many languages, nationalities, and peoples are united Sunday after Sunday in a great prayer of thanksgiving to the God who gives us every good gift. It is the Spirit of Christ that makes us one, even as we pray that we "may be filled with his Holy Spirit, and become one body, one spirit in Christ" (Eucharistic Prayer 3). The very fact the church gathers in so many languages is a great sign of the unifying action of the Holy Spirit. We thank God for all the blessings poured out on us, each in our own tongue. And rather than it being a cacophony, the Spirit weaves our prayer together as we cry out "Abba, Father," as Paul writes in today's selection from his Letter to the Romans.

If the Holy Spirit prompts us all-no matter what race, language, or nationality-to call upon God as our Father, then indeed the Spirit invites us to see others who are baptized as our brothers and sisters. So on this great feast, think of all who are brother and sister to us because they too are baptized in Christ and call on God as Father: The Iraqi refugee in Jordan who fled from his church; the Dalit (Untouchable) Christian in India who is of the lowest caste; the illegal immigrant Catholic from Mexico; the homeless Christian in Chicago. These, along with us and many others, call upon one Father in the Holy Spirit.

Jesus said to them again, "Peace be with you. As the Father has sent me, so I send you." And when he had said this, he breathed on them and said to them, "Receive the Holy Spirit. Whose sins you forgive are forgiven them, and whose sins you retain are retained."

John 20:21-23

On Thursday, June 3, 2010, at 6:00 p.m. at the Thome Dominguez Community Center the New Mexico Environment Department has scheduled a public hearing to consider approval of the ground water Discharge Permit Renewal Application as submitted by the New Mexico Water Service Company. Discharge Permits are issued pursuant to New Mexico Water Quality Control Commission Regulations. All are invited to attend.

Next week is Corpus Christi Sunday. The three altars will be set up around the park. The Eucharistic Ministers are asked to meet at the park immediately after the 10:00 Mass at the first Altar. Procession around the park will begin after the 10:00 Mass.

Thank you to Delbert Davenport, Amy Chavez and Sean Willis for the years of service to Immaculate Conception as Altar Servers. Congratulations on your graduation from high school and we wish you much success in your future endeavors. We also congratulate all graduating high school and college graduates. May the future be bright for all of you and God bless you always.

Knights of Columbus Corner: The Knights meet on the 1st Thursday of the month for a business meeting. They meet on the 3rd Thursday of the month for a social meeting. Everyone is invited to pray the Rosary with them at their social Meeting.
