FROM THE PASTOR'S DESK

For seven seasons the Discovery Channel's highly rated show Deadliest Catch has wowed viewers with the real life tales of extreme fishermen in the Bering Sea off the coast of Alaska. They are after crab, with hopes for a big payday if they're successful. But the challenges of weather, luck, and crew can leave a captain without a large enough catch and finally without a job. Viewers can watch from the comfort of their homes, settled back in an easy chair while a crew fights ice, high seas, equipment failure, and frayed nerves. What is entertainment for those watching the television is daily life on the boat for those who work at sea.

In the Gospel today, Jesus meets up with some fishermen. Simon and Andrew, James and John were casting their nets, probably not very far from shore. While the Sea of Galilee cannot compare to the Bering Sea, we know from the Gospels that storms can be violent on that body of water as well. Certainly at the time of Jesus fishing it was as dangerous a job as it is today. So when Jesus called the two sets of brothers to follow him, were they looking for a safer job?

Unlikely! Fishing for men and women is a lot more difficult than fishing for fish. The disciples answered the call to follow Jesus. It is a call that he continues to issue today. Whether in the priesthood, the religious life, the married state, or the committed single life, Jesus is asking people to follow him, not in a job, but in a way of life. Just as the crew of a boat on the Bering Sea doesn't punch out after eight hours, the life of a Christian is more than a full-time job. Following Jesus forms the basis for our lives. We do it all day, every day. That is the call he gives.

He walked along a little farther and saw James, the son of Zebedee, and his brother John. They too were in a boat mending their nets. Then he called them. So they left their father Zebedee in the boat along with the hired men and followed him.

Mark 1:19-20

Children's Reflection: Jesus will teach you to catch others for him. You can catch fish by putting food in front of them. People need soul food to be close to God. People want to go to heaven with God. Tell them that Jesus loves them and died on the cross for them. Tell them he wants everyone to do good. Then people will gladly come into his net. They will be at peace because Jesus will give them everything they need.

Prayer: Lord, help me stay hooked on you.

A correction to the previous bulletin regarding the Legion of Mary taking the Blessed Mother statue to homes that would like to have her for a week. Call Clara Jordan at 865-8488. The number had been listed incorrectly.

Everyone is invited to come and sing. Everyone means everyone. This is a great opportunity to come and sing music that you know, some that you kind of know and maybe something new. If you play an instrument, bring it with you.
Where: San Clemente (Los Lunas), Wednesday February 1, 7:00 to 9:00 p.m.

Continuing with our introduction of our parish ministry leaders we present Mary Jo Moya, Lector Ministry. Mary Jo has been in charge of the lectors for quite some time. She has both Spanish and English lectors. There are three Masses on the weekend. The 5:30 p.m. Saturday Mass is in English, the 8:00 a.m. Mass on Sunday in Spanish and the 10:00 a.m. Mass on Sunday in English. There are six Spanish Lectors and 14 English Lectors—seven for the 5:30 Mass and seven for the 10:00 Mass. Each lector is responsible for picking up the Missalette or the annual Workbook for Lectors to study the readings before their scheduled readings. The Prayers of the Faithful and announcements can also be picked up at the office before each Sunday. Lectors should arrive early in order to set up the Lectionary on the Lectern and make sure all is in place before Mass starts. They also have to ensure that after Mass all books and papers are removed and the Lectern is ready for the next Mass whether it be a weekday Mass or for the following Sunday. Anyone interested in being a lector can call Mary Jo Moya.

Knights of Columbus Corner:

The Knights meet on the 1st Thursday of the month for a joint business/social meeting. The meetings always start with the Rosary and everyone is welcome.

The Legion of Mary meets each Wednesday after daily Mass in the Classroom. Join them in praying the Rosary after daily Mass. Divine Mercy meets each Thursday after daily Mass.
